The Chief Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

Dated Bangalore, the 24th April *194*0.

RECRUITMENT IN THE ARMY IN INDIA
NURSING SERVICE RESERVE.

SIR,

I am directed to enclose a copy of a notification inviting applications from candidates for recruitment in the Army in India Nursing Service Reserve, published in the local English press by the Residency Surgeon. This service will be placed on the same footing as other military medical services in the matter of recruitment, viz. through the Director-General, Indian Medical Service.

2. It is anticipated that about 250 nurses will be required during the course of the next 6 months. It is understood that there are resident in the Mysore State an appreciable number of nurses either in the State employ or in private practice. The Resident will be grateful if the Government of Mysore will give through their Senior Surgeon wide publicity to the needs of the military authorities.

3. Copies of terms and conditions of appointment and forms of applications may be obtained by the candidates themselves from the Residency Surgeon, Bangalore. The Lady Superintendent of the Bowring and Lady Curzon Hospitals will be glad to interview applicants

applicants by appointment.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

SECRETARY TO THE RESIDENT.
